Full to the Brim — An Expansive Lent

March 2nd is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the season of Lent in our life as a Christian community. Calvary has special resources—a themed devotional booklet and prayer cards—to guide us into a deeper, shared experience of what Lent is and can be for us and our world.

"Our Lenten theme, Full to the Brim, is an invitation—into a radically different Lent, into a full life. It's an invitation to be authentically who you are, to counter scarcity and injustice at every turn, to pour out even more grace wherever it is needed. When we allow ourselves to be filled to the brim with God's lavish love, that love spills over. It reaches beyond ourselves; like water, it rushes and flows, touching everything in its path."

Devotional booklets and packets of prayer cards will be available at Calvary throughout Lent. We can also provide them electronically or mail them to you.

Please call the church office at 412-231-2007 if you would like us to send them electronically or by mail.

Support the Humanitarian Response in Ukraine

March 1, 2022

United Methodists and others wishing to provide humanitarian assistance to the Ukrainian people in the wake of the Russian invasion of their country may contribute to Advance #982450, UMCOR International Disaster Response and Recovery. This fund will provide direct assistance to those in Ukraine as well as assistance to Ukrainians fleeing to neighboring countries.

Gifts to support the people of Ukraine can be made in the following ways:

- Online at <https://umcmmission.org/advance-project/982450>
- By toll-free telephone: 888-252-6174
- By check made out to Global Ministries/UMCOR with “Advance #982450-Ukraine” written on the memo line, either mailed and addressed to Global Ministries/UMCOR, GPO, P.O. Box 9068, New York, NY, 10087-9068 or given at or through any United Methodist church

One hundred percent of all Advance contributions go to the designated cause.

The United Methodist community in Ukraine, though quite small, is actively engaged in assisting neighbors in need. Global Ministries is in touch with the church’s leadership as well as with church leaders in countries welcoming those who are fleeing from violence in Ukraine.

Calvary United Methodist Church has stood as a beacon of hope, light, and faithfulness on Pittsburgh's North Side since 1895. The building and congregation have undergone much renewal and development over the past few decades – most notably the restoration of the church's breath-taking Tiffany windows – and there is still work to be completed.

The Bell Restoration and Carillon Project: Bringing Music to North Side Neighborhoods

One current project is the restoration of our church bell and the addition of a carillon. Our original bell is in the church's highest tower on Allegheny Avenue and has rarely rung in over 30 years.

Calvary engaged the Verdin Company, a trusted and world-renowned bell manufacturer in Ohio that has been casting and restoring bells since 1842 to assess the bell's condition. Verdin has offered a proposal to restore it to ringing condition, automate its function, and add a digital carillon.

We hope to offer the pleasant bell tones once again to the Allegheny West and Manchester neighborhoods and possibly beyond. The digital carillon will ring through the streets with songs of the seasons lending a small-town feel to the busy North Side neighborhoods.

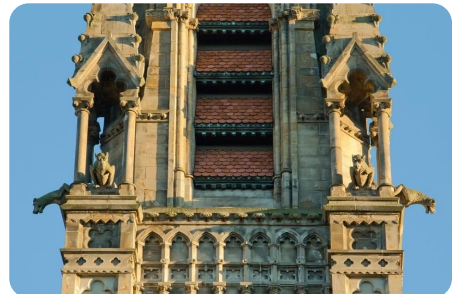

“An Account of How Our Bell Came to Be”

David Grinnell, Chair of the Calvary United Methodist Church Council & Coordinator of Archives and Manuscripts, University of Pittsburgh Library System

“There are so many stories to be told about the people who contributed to the heritage of Calvary Church that we could fill many volumes about their faith, commitment, service, gifts, and witness. The bell that has sat silently in the north tower at Calvary is one great example.

On Wednesday, January 10, 1940, the bell was dedicated during a service at 8 pm that evening. When it arrived, it had already been a beacon for the faithful for a half century. It came to Calvary following the merger of the former Buena Vista Street Methodist Church [Mexican War Streets].

The bell was originally a gift from the Rev. James Jackson McIllyar (1816-1907), pastor of Buena Vista Church (and its predecessor congregation the South Common's Church) when that congregation built its new church in 1886.

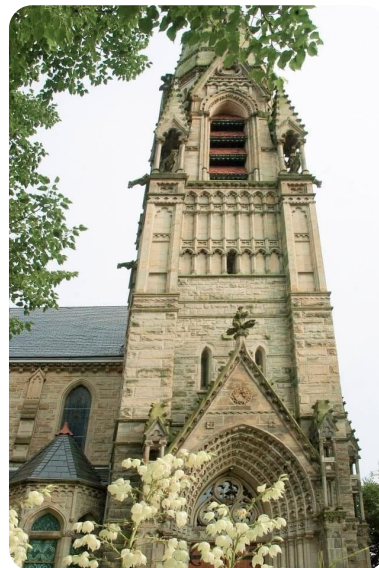

The bell was cast by one of Pittsburgh's most famous manufacturers, the Fulton Bell and Brass Foundry, which also made the massive Pittsburgh Fire Bell that hangs in the Great Hall at the Heinz History Center today.

Rev. McIlyar would become an outspoken champion for steel workers during the Homestead Steel Strike of 1892 with his sermons and writings being published in newspapers around the globe. His accounts are still referenced today on that historic event in our region.

On hand for the dedication of the bell's installation at Calvary was Rev. McIlyar's grandson, Dr. M. H. Lichliter, a third-generation minister of the Gospel who served Methodist and Congregational churches throughout the Midwest.

Isn't it time to let the McIlyar Bell ring out God's praise and call the faithful, those in need, and all those who seek a new life through Christ's redeeming love?"

The Fundraising Campaign: How You Can Support This Project

The total cost of the bell's restoration and automation and the addition of the digital carillon is $26,000. Nearly $14,000 – just over one half of the cost – has been raised so far.

The Fundraising Campaign goal is $12,000

The Campaign will run through Palm Sunday, April 10, 2022.

Gifts can be made by:

- Sending a check payable to Calvary UMC with the memo Bell Project to Calvary United Methodist Church, 971 Beech Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15233
- Credit card on Calvary's online giving page, calvarypgh.com and clicking on the , or visiting our Facebook Fundraiser at www.facebook.com/calvaryumcpittsburgh.
- Cash gifts can be presented during the Sunday offering or call the Church Office at 412-231-2007 to make arrangements or talk about other ways to give.

You can make a gift in memory or in honor of a loved one. All contributions are tax-deductible. All supporters will be invited to the official dedication and their names and tributes/memorials will be listed in the dedication program.

We hope you'll give your best gift, of any size, so you feel a sense of joy and pride in hearing the bells as you walk through the neighborhood – knowing that you brought real music into the daily life of community residents and visitors.

Thank you for giving so generously.

If you have questions, please contact Brian Burns, Music Director, at 724-388-3246.

Lay Leaders and Liturgists

Liturgists serve an important role in worship. Liturgists help lead the congregation in various parts of the worship service, including the recitation of the Call to Worship and the reading of scripture. This valuable service allows the congregation to take an active part in the worship service and it allows participants in worship to hear multiple voices speak from the pulpit. If you are interested in being a Lay Leader or a Liturgist for an upcoming Sunday worship service, please contact the church office at CalvaryPgh@gmail.com or see Lynn Sevick.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship †* Lay Leader — Mark Rehn

One: Jesus went to the mountaintop to pray.

All: Jesus went into the city to heal.

One: Jesus walked to Samaria to extend love.

All: Jesus went to the water's edge to teach.

One: Jesus went to places of peace and connection,

All: But Jesus also went to the wilderness.

One: There is nowhere we can go that God does not walk with us.

All: We are in God's house. Let us worship Holy God.

Opening Hymn †* "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah" — #127 UMH

Opening Prayer Lay Leader — Mark Rehn

Community Greetings

Message for the Young Hearted Rev. Myles Bradley

Prayer Hymn †* "Even in the Desert" — Words to Follow

1. Even in the desert, fruitfulness can flourish, mercies bloom from which we nourish.
Give us daily manna, God of endless graces;
show your light upon our faces.
Here we see your decree
and it's invitation:
love as our foundation.
2. Even in the desert, we are blessed with treasures, gifts from God beyond our measure.
Satan offers excess, power, control, seduction;
we will follow God's instruction.
By God's will, cups are filled,
mercy finds the stranger,
saves the lost from danger.

ORDER OF WORSHIP, CONT...

3. Even in the desert, first fruits freely given, grace abounds and sins forgiven.
Washed in God's abundance, we are daring dreamers on the path of our redeemer.
Truth is told, grace unfolds,
love protects our neighbor,
justice is our labor.

Prayer Concerns

Call to Confession *

All: Friends, we worship a God who doesn't keep score and doesn't hold grudges. We worship a God who invites us into a richer faith, a deeper love, a more compassionate existence with a million chances to try again. So let us speak truth into our lives, asking for God's help where we need it. Let us pray the prayer of confession together.

Prayer of Confession *

One: Holy God, when we think that expansive life is about power—

All: Teach us a new way.

One: Gracious Creator, when we think that expansive life is about material wealth—

All: Teach us a new way.

One: Gracious Author, when we think that expansive life is about control—

All: Teach us a new way.

One: Teach us to live as you live.

All: Teach us to love as you love.

One: Forgive us when we don't.

All: Gratefully we pray, amen.

Words of Forgiveness *

One: Siblings in Christ, no matter how many times we mess up, no matter how far we wander, no matter how lost we feel, God's grace is full to the brim. It overflows in desert places. It finds us where we are and it covers us in mercy. Hear and believe this good news—

All: God's love is overflowing. We are drenched in mercy. Thanks be to God, amen.

ORDER OF WORSHIP, CONT...

Pastoral Prayer Rev. Bud Wagner

Scripture * Luke 4:1-13 NRSV

1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, 2 where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. 3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." 4 Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'" 5 Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. 6 And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. 7 If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." 8 Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'" 9 Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, 10 for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,' 11 and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'" 12 Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" 13 When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

One: The word of God, written by the people of God, for the people of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

Reflection "Even in the Desert" — Rev. Beth Nelson

The Sacrament of Holy Communion * Page 9 UMH

The Great Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

One: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth. You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast.

You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, and spoke to us through the prophets. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

One: Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. Your Spirit anointed him to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, and to announce that the time had come when you would save your people. He healed the sick, fed the hungry, and ate with sinners. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit. When the Lord Jesus ascended, he promised to be with us always, in the power of your Word and Holy Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

All: Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

One: Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

Order of Worship continued on following page

The Lord's Prayer * #895 UMH

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Sharing of Communion

Closing Prayer *

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Invitation to Offering

Doxology †* “Bless Thou the Gifts” — #587 UMH

Bless thou the gifts our hands have brought; bless thou the work our hearts have planned.
Ours is the faith, the will, the thought; the rest, O God, is in thy hand.

Offering Prayer †* Lay Leader — Mark Rehn

Closing Hymn †* “Our Lord You Were Sent” — Words to Follow

1. Our Lord, you were sent to a place wild and vast
To ponder your mission, to pray and to fast;
Then hungry and weary, you faced night and day
The subtle temptations to turn from God's way.
2. How could it be wrong to want bread on the shelf?
To seek, in one's serving, to first serve one's self?
But by God's own word you remained ever sure:
It's only in God that our lives are secure.
3. How could it be wrong to step out and to dare,
To prove with great drama the depths of God's care?
But you knew God's word, true since all time began:
It's wrong to expect God to work by our plan.

4. How could it be wrong to just once bow the knee,
To shake hands with sin to achieve victory?
Yet you made it clear that no matter the cost:
Your path was obedience, your way was the cross.
5. Our Lord, in your struggle you chose to obey;
God's word filled your heart and you trusted God's way.
Now risen, you save us from sins that destroy;
You give us your Spirit, your peace and your joy.

Affirmation of Faith †* Lay Leader — Mark Rehn

One: Jesus went to the mountaintop to pray.

All: Jesus went into the city to heal.

One: Jesus We believe God is love.

All: We believe God's love is overflowing.

One: Jesus We believe Jesus is a river.

All: We believe that river is running toward us.

One: Jesus We believe the Holy Spirit is a vessel.

All: We believe that vessel holds mercy for you and for me.

One: Jesus We believe the wilderness is real.

All: We believe the desert is lonely.

One: Jesus We believe that Jesus has been there.

All: We know that we do not walk alone.

One: Jesus Even in the desert,

All: We are loved.

One: Jesus Even in the desert,

All: God is with us.

One: Jesus Even in the desert,

All: this love overflows.

One: Jesus Thanks be to God,

All: Amen.
