Children’s Message

Psalter Lesson * . . . . . Psalm 139:1-6, 13-18 NRSV

- <sup>1</sup> O Lord, you have searched me and known me.
- <sup>2</sup> You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away.
- <sup>3</sup> You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways.
- <sup>4</sup> Even before a word is on my tongue, O Lord, you know it completely.
- <sup>5</sup> You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.
- <sup>6</sup> Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.
- <sup>13</sup> For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother’s womb.
- <sup>14</sup> I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.
- <sup>15</sup> My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.
- <sup>16</sup> Your eyes beheld my unformed substance. In your book were written all the days that were formed for me, when none of them as yet existed.
- <sup>17</sup> How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!
- <sup>18</sup> I try to count them—they are more than the sand; I come to the end—I am still with you.

Leader: The word of God, written by the people of God, for the people of God.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Gospel Lesson †* . . . . . John 9:1-12 NRSV

- 1 As he walked along, he saw a man blind from birth.
- 2 His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”
- 3 Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God’s works might be revealed in him.
- 4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work.
- 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”
- 6 When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man’s eyes,
- 7 saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see.
- 8 The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?”
- 9 Some were saying, “It is he.” Others were saying, “No, but it is someone like him.” He kept saying, “I am he.”
- 10 But they kept asking him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”
- 11 He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ Then I went and washed and received my sight.”
- 12 They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.

"You don't ever have to do anything sensational for people to love you. When I say 'it's you I like,' I'm talking about that part of you that knows that life is far more than anything you can ever see or hear or touch...that deep part of you that allows you to stand for those things without which humankind cannot survive: love that conquers hate, peace that rises triumphant over war, and justice that proves more powerful than greed. So in all that you do, in all of your life, I wish you the strength and the grace to make those choices which will allow you and your neighbor to become the best of whoever you are."
